FROM : Manager, Saturn V Program, I-V-MGR

In reply refer to:
I-V-T-61-68

SUBJECT : Cancellation of Saturn V Launch Vehicle
Mission Directives

- REFERENCE: (a) Apollo Program Directive No. 43, Apollo Mission
Implementation Plan, dated June 22, 1968
(b) Saturn V Program Directive No. 13, Saturn V
Launch Vehicle Mission Directives, dated March 30, 1966
(c) SA-503 Launch Vehicle Mission Directive, Revision A, dated December 28, 1966
(d) Saturn V Launch Vehicle Mission Directive for Lunar Landing Missions, dated February 28, 1967

The Mission Implementation Plan established by reference (a) precludes the necessity for Launch Vehicle Mission Directives as established by reference (b). Therefore, reference (b) which established the procedures and responsibilities for developing Saturn V Launch Vehicle Mission Directives is cancelled. Also, references (c) and (d) are out of date and are cancelled.

Mr. A. D. Rowan, I-V-E, is assigned the responsibility for developing the MSFC inputs (including launch vehicle mission objectives) for the Apollo Mission Implementation Plan and a Saturn V Mission Implementation Plan for each mission.
